GUY AND GLADYS LINDSAY DUKE

Guy Duke was born at Heber City, May 10, 1892, son of Elisha J. and Malinda Cummings Duke. He married Gladys Lindsay Briggs January 4, 1923. She was born October 13, 1892.
Guy received his education in the public and high schools of Heber City, Utah. Upon leaving school he was employed as a clerk for A. Hatch & Co. at Heber in 1912 and 1913, and was appointed manager of the clothing department until 1917. He was appointed postmaster during 1921 and 1922. He was elected Wasatch County assessor the latter part of 1922 and has acted continuously until the present (1959).
During the World War he enlisted in the U. S. Army in September, 1917, and was assigned for training to Camp Lewis, Washington, until June, 1918. He served overseas for a period of six months in the Argonne Forest, France, and was wounded three times in action. He received an honorable discharge from the service in July, 1920.
He is a member of Lockhart Post No. 23 of the American Legion, and a member of the LDS Church.
Gladys Lindsay married Archie Briggs February 13, 1912. He died April 9, 1918. To them were born five children: Lois, Lucille, Lindsay, Archie, and Maurice. After Archie's death she was elected county treasurer. When her term expired she married Guy Duke, whom she helped continuously with his county assessor job. She is also a visiting teacher in the Relief Society. Guy and Gladys have four children: Dawna Ray, Glenna, Jimmie, and Robert Dean.
